Rules & Regulations

- Open walk only classes are limited to riders 10 and under
- Novice classes are for horses in their first year of showing OR for riders who have won fewer than 7 first places.
- Youth classes are for riders 12 and under, junior classes are for riders 13-17.
- Youth and Junior riders who jump above 2' may only enter the open hunter hack class- they are excluded from Youth & Junior hunter hack.
- Open classes are open to riders of all ages and skill levels.
- A GAYP or Go As You Please Class includes a walk and then other gait desired by the rider. Same gaits in both directions.
- Gambler's choice classes will be a timed event where each rider will jump as many jumps as possible in the amount of time allotted to accumulate points. Jumps will be worth different amount of points and will be labeled as such prior to the start of the class.
- SG means secondary gait (trot, jog or pleasure gait). The pleasure gait is for non-trotting breeds.
- Commands classes will require riders to perform any task such as demonstrating a two-point position, dropping stirrups, etc.

- Grounds fee: $2.00 flat fee for all exhibitors
- Entries: $8.00 per class ($7.00 for 4-H members)
- Jump Schooling: $5.00 per horse/rider combo.
- *Entries must scratch AT LEAST 3 classes in advance to receive a refund, otherwise classes will be charged.
- Formal attire is not required but appropriate riding apparel is required (i.e. boots with heel, no shorts, etc.)
- All entry fees must be paid before leaving the show grounds via cash or check. A $25.00 fee will be assessed for all returned checks
- Training/action devices are not permitted while in the show ring during a class (i.e. no martingales, draw reins, chains/weights, etc.)
- Helmets are permitted in any class but are required for riders in all jump classes.
- A current negative Coggins test is required and will be checked for all horses trailered in
- All questions can be directed to CUET head coach, Michelle Campbell at NCHorseandPony@aol.com or by calling (919)-868-6404.
